der command of Col Bostwick, are to have a parade on Wednerday next, and it is said that the corps will he reviewed in the Park by Major-General Scott, the Mayer and Common Council. The Milwaukee Light Guard will arrive in this city on Saturday, on a visit to New-York, and will be the guests of the 71st Regiment. The Goard will remain in town until Taescay.

METROPOLITAN THEATER .- This bouse was crowded het night, the first of the Summer season, there being more attractions conjoined to secure that desirable state of facts, than are generally announced in any eme bill. First and foremost, a most admirable com-pany, comprehending a long 1st of the most popular New-Yerk favorites, were to enact the comedy of "The Rivals." Secondly certain fairy transformater, changing that immense space from a dreary square sere or so of mosaic pavement, into a verdurous garden, with a cool fountain in the middle, most grateful in its refrigerating suggestiveness on hot nights like there. Thirdly, certain changes have been made in the arrangement of the stage, by which the dimensions thereof have been considerably increased; then, certain other items of improvement, in the shape of new scenes, and a new drop certain, have been perfected, all of which the public were most desirous to see. To speak more particularly, the stage has been extended about ten feet forward, bring ug the players into more desirable prematy to the audience, and materially adding to the comfort of all parties. In the lobby are placed some fine evergreens, which give a pleasant air to that portion of the house, while the long vestibale has been transformed into a fairy garden, filled with rare and beautiful flowers and trees, cooled by an elegant fountain, and lighted by large chandeliers. This fine entrance is suggestive of N blo's Garden, in the days when it was a garden, and people thronged there for a cool promenade among the trees and flowers. With the improvements here noted, the Metropolit sn has become by far the most attractive place of amusement in the city, so far as its visible adornments are taken into account. That the con edy was excellently well acted no one san doubt, when told that it was done by Mesers. Blake, Breugham, Walcot, Barton Hill, George Holhand, Reynolds, and Miss Ada Chifton, Mrs. F. B. Conway, Mrs. W. H. Smith and Miss Viola Crocker. All the above-mentioned persons, together with Mr. John Dyott and other favorites, are engaged for the Summer, and will contribute their best energies to preducing the plays in the best possible style. It may not be out of place here to mention a circumstance of injustice which is not palpable to all the audience, but which is none the less an injustice on that account, both to the public, who desire to witness the whole of a sterling comedy, and to certain actors In the play, who are deprived of their just rights. These facts to which we refer are common among prominent actors, which cannot be too severely repre-hended. Not content with "bos-ing" the business of a piece, so as to give them all the best points and situations, they go so far as to mutilate the author's text for the purpose of getting the "tag," or last word, whereby they appropriate to their own account the generone applause which rewards all parties alike in a well-acted play. Mr. Blake does this in "Toe Rivals." The author took the fiberty of tapering off the final speeches as follows: Sir Lucius, Acres, Sir Faulkland, Capt. Absolute, Lydia and Anthony, Julia. Mr. Blake corrects the mistake of Speridan, and in the copies given out for study, calls down the For the purpose of monopolizing situations and applanse which are the legitimate property of others. An actor of his honorable and well deserved fame ought to be ashamed of such a petty trick.

To-night will be given Coleman's comedy of " John Bull," with Messrs. Blake, Brougham, Walcot, Miss Clifton, Miss Conway and others in the cast.

The new act drop by Isherwood is a beautiful bit of landscape painting, and was received with a round of applause. It is to be hoped that the incomprehensible mass of Swiss cottages, Italian villas, Alpine avalanches, Venetian gondolas, tumble-down houses, impassible trees, shrubs unknown in botany, rocks undescribed in any known system of geology, rivulets, frozen lakes, Turks, Russians, cameis, Polar bears, cowded into the painting that did duty formerly as a drop curtain, is painted out so theroughly that no fature generation may ever be afflicted therewith. The musical necessities are under the direction of Mr. E. Mollenhauer, the popular leader.

A new play in five acts, by Mr. Jehn Brougham, will shortly be produced. It is entitled, "Art and Artifice; or, A True Woman's Love." It is founded on the wondrous story of Quentin Matsys, the Black moith-Painter of Antwerp. Messrs. Brougham, Dyott, Walcot, and Mrs. Conway and Miss Clifton will exact the chief parts.

LAURA KEENE'S THEATHER .- Mr. Felix A. Vincent has been engaged at this theater for the next season, as the first low comedian, to fill the place of Mr. Jefferson. The choice is a most judicious one or the part of the management, as Mr. Vincent is an old New-Yorker, always a great favorite, and will doubtless prove to be exactly the right man in the right

FATAL OHNIBUS ACCIDENT .- About 62 o'clock yes terday morning John Rice, driver of stage No. 466 of the Bowery and Grand-street line, was coming down Chatham square at a slow pace, and when near the corner of Mott street, Henry R. Boden, a lad 14 years of age, accompanied by another some years older attempted to cross the street in advance of the omnibus. Henry, in a playful manuer, being apprehensive of no danger, placed his band on the end of the omnibus pole, when it is supposed he stumbled and fell, and before he could recover, two of the wheels passed over his head and neck, fracturing his jaw and skull, lacerating some of the principal arteries, thereby causing death almost instantle. The body of deceased was taken up and conveyed to the Fourth Ward Police Station, and an officer apprehended the stage driver Coroner O'Keefe subsequently held an inquest, when It appeared from the testimony that Rice, the driver, was proceeding at a slow rate of speed at the time of the unfortunate occurrence, which he used every effort to prevent. The Jury rendered a verdict that Henry Boden, the deceased, came to his death by injuries received by being accidentally run over by stage No. 466 of the Bowery and Grand-street line, June 9, 1859; and furthermore we exenerate the driver from all blame. The parents of deceased reside corner of Graham avenue and Sandford place, Brooklya, E. D., where the remains were taken for interment. Rice, the driver, was accordingly discharged.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- As the cars of the down train from Albany was approaching Sing Sing yester day forenoon, they encountered a man lying across the track. It was not known whether the man, whose name is unknown, had just previous to the approach of the care, laid himself in the way, or in jumping from another train while in motion, been killed; at any rate, he is represented as laying perfeetly still and motionless at the time of his being run OVEL.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

Mr. Strakosch, even in the Summer solstice, given generous entertainments, and at this time has a company as large as is due in the regular season. We have already taken occasion to notice the great merits of Mad. Cortesi exhibited in different characters, and the striking success which attended her. But we find Mr. Strakosch, in the wealth of his prime donne, is enabled to present another-Mad. Colson-of whom we have already spoken at length, on her debut last year. This lady appeared last night in Robert le Di able as Alice, and acquitted herself very well, being called for after the trio and receiving a number of bouquets. She is a neat singer, with much capacity for intensifying her tones at particular places, and making her dramatic points. The nice execution of Mad. Cairoli was well displayed in the character of Isabella. Mr. Brignoli's beautiful tenor always imparts interest to whatever he undertakes. Squires, who did Rinaldo, is an American who has studied and performed in Italy. He possesses a very pure, sweet tenor-more of the light than of the rebust order, but espable certainly of parts of greater mettle than that of a simple peasant. We hope to hear Mr. Squires in a more prominent character. The Bertram of Mr. Junca is a meritorious performance. He has a deep bass voice, cultivated in the traditions of the French Academy.

With all the excellence and elaboration of the music of Robert le Drable, which contains some of the best things of the composer, there is at times a certain deficiency of musical "go"-more elaboration than spontaneity-more working up than scintillation. It is an opera which never has, as a whole, commanded attention equal to its merits, outside of Paris. There it is an institution.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

Mr. William Van Voorbis, a well-known citizen, died at his resdence in Fleet street, yesterday, of erysipelas. He was lately engaged in extensive building operations, baving constructed many of the fines structures in the city.

PROBABLE FATAL AFFRAY .- At an early hour or Sunday morning last, an elderly man named John Bradley, was found in the hall-way of his residence, No. 2 Franklin place, insensible and covered with bruises. There were severe confusions about his body and a wound on the back of the neck evidently nflicted by means of slung shot. It appears that Bradley attended a "wake" in Howard's court on Saturday pight, and about 10 o'clock went out with Saturday night, and about 10 o'clock went out with one Thomas Mullen, with whom he returned about 2 o'clock. They then went away again with a third party named Arthur Swaney, and he was not seen again until found insensible at his house. Mullen and Swaney returned to Howard's court without him, and Swaney returned to Howard's court without him, and Bradley's son asking where his father was, and insisting upon knowing, was assaulted by Swaney. The injured man was visited vesterday by Coroner Horton and Surgeon Balt, but he is so low that nothing could be learned as to the cause of his injuries or who inflicted them. Warrants were issued for the arrest of Swaney and Mullen. The latter was taken into custody last night and committed to await farther inquiry.

The circumstarce was rested to Decetive Van Wagner, who brought him to the office of the Deputy aperintendent of Police, where he will be cared for until an operatualty occurs to send him home.

FOUND INSENSIBLE IN THE STREET .- Officer Boyd of the First Precinct police found a man in Jay street, on Wednesday night, apparently stepfied from the effects of liquor. He was taken to the Station-House, and medical assistance called, but too late to be of any avail. He soon after died. The deceased appeared to be about 50 vests of are, not poorly clost. THURSDAY, June 9, P. M. With a fair increase in the amount of transactions there has been rather a sharp rally to-day in some of the leading fancies, and the list generally shows an improved feeling. It is however, as far as we can ascertain, a street movement, a natural reaction folowing the decline of the past week or ten days. A portion of the bears have sold freely, and have been orced into market to cover maturing contracts, while in several descriptions of stock a temporary scarcity of cash stock has been created by the operations of cliques. The foreign news was looked upon as favorable, and had a tendency to strengthen the market. At the Second Board, New-York Central received a new impetus from the rumors that the com-peting roads had arrived at a basis of settlement, and the market generally sympathized with that stock. Central opened at 724, with a good demand for cash stock, which was less scarce than for several days past, and ran up as the call proceeded to 721. Between the Boards 73 was touched, but the shorts being supplied, it fell back to 72%. At the Second Board, bowever, it took a start-a broker connected with Albany buyers opening the ball-and went up rapidly to 734. At the close it was weaker, and was quoted at 734 2734. Rock Island was also very buoyant, and at the Second Board touched 591, an advance of I 4" cent. Galens was also in demand, and advanced to 647. The improvement in Southern Michigan Guaranteed is I v cent, and the old shares were also better. Michigan Central was dull, but stronger, selling up to 41%. Harlem Preferred sold in the morning at 34, but in the afterneon 344 was bid. The decline in this stock has attracted some attention of speculators to it. The business and position of the road is constantly improving, and the day cannot be very far distant when the payment of dividends upon the Preferred stock can be resumed. Reading, under orders from Philadelphia, was buoyant, and closed at 38, an improve-ama was steady at 118; bid. In Bank stocks ther are but few transactions, and the market is weak The list generally shows a decline of 1 to 3 P cent since the Union Bank affair was made public. In the Bond market, there was no marked change in prices, and the business is very call. The transactions in State Stocks and Railroad Bonds at private sale are also very limited. The parties who have been recently bearing State Stocks appear to have subsided. Eric 4th Mortgage sold at 344, which is a further decline. The last prices were: Missouri 64, 841. It is quite uncertain how much specie will go by the Saturday steamer, but probably three quarters of a million. Future shipments will of course depend much upon the craracter of the foreign advices, but appearances at present indicate that the excessive drain is over. Gold has declined in London which will tend to check the export from this country.

We quote first-class paper at 6 28 ? cent, with but ew names that can be done under 7 P cent. Some eading acceptances at or under sixty days, can still be passed at less than that figure. Very good six months bills have been passed to-day at 9 ? cent. Call loans are 5@7 P cent, the lower figure being the exception. Two representatives of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, one of them Mr. President Thompson, had a meeting to-day at the St. Nicholas, with Messrs. Corning and Richmond of the New-York Central, and Mr. Barlow, at which, after an amicable discussion, a satisfactory basis of settlement was agreed upon, which later in the day was submitted to Mr. Moran for his assent. The schedule, it is understood, puts passenger fares back to old rates, and the freight tariff is on the basis of 112 cents per cwt. for first class to Cincinnati. It is understood that the agreement will be concurred in by the Bultimore and Onio Railroad, although that Company had no representative present Mr. Moran made no response to the proposition yes terday, but another meeting is to be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow, when it it is thought he will sgree to the proposed arrangement.

Philodelphia Ledger Says:

"There were free sales of Reading Rellroad shares yesterday—even more than are published in our report—some 300 shares witing before Boards, at 174 During the day the sales exceeded 5,000 shares, mostly at 1740-171. The great falling off in the price of this stock in certify, fells with more than usual secretity on Philodelphia. The speciation in it has always heretofure been divided between the operators here and at New York, and goverally the losses and sains have been pretty qually shared between the two ciries. This time, it is betieved the New Yorkers have escaped with comparatively little loss, while the Philodelphians are understood to be heavily loaded with it. When it is remembered that much of this axick come into the postession of bulders at 25 and shove, and is now worth at 1746-18, the less it will be seen must be very heavy.
One individual is reported to hold 17,000 shares, and must of the brokers and outside dealers a greater or less amount.
One of our banks is said to hold largely as collateral, and more of them may be to the same uncervisible somethod. If this shall prove true, and they shall even loss something, they will command little of the sympathy of the public, for it is no pure of the burners of banking to take part it, or in the most indirect way foster and encourage specuation, and least of all faxey stock specularion. That stock dealers of the andler class should be criven to the wall by the adverse turn in the market is not earprisit, and if some of the larger operators hold out to the end of the present downward tendency they will probably be fortunate.
The Company is doing a good business, as its more thy statements above, but business and statements are of little avail against a combination of dealers who see hyrofit from their gambling transactions in the shares—the whole business being little better than he of ways that the price will be higher or lower at a given time in the intere."
